GOD & GOVERNMENT PART 2

OUR RESPONSE: CHRISTIAN SUBMISSION

1 PETER 2:13-17

Sermon Series: God & Government November 1, 2026

Letter A. Christian Submission Requires _____ (vv. 13–14)

God's Two Purposes for Government:

#1. _____ _____ (v. 14b)

#2. _____ _____ (v. 14c)

Lesson #1. We must _____ governing authorities and _____ our convictions to _____ _____.

Letter B. Christian Submission Requires _____ (vv. 15–16)

Lesson #2. We must use our _____ to do _____
— not to _____ _____.

Letter C. Christian Submission Requires _____ (v. 17)

Lesson #3. We must: _____ God above _____,
_____ His people, and _____ everyone.

GOD & GOVERNMENT PART 2

OUR RESPONSE: CHRISTIAN SUBMISSION

1 PETER 2:13-17

Sermon Series: God & Government November 1, 2026

Letter A. Christian Submission Requires _____ (vv. 13–14)

God's Two Purposes for Government:

#1. _____ _____ (v. 14b)

#2. _____ _____ (v. 14c)

Lesson #1. We must _____ governing authorities and _____ our convictions to _____ _____.

Letter B. Christian Submission Requires _____ (vv. 15–16)

Lesson #2. We must use our _____ to do _____
— not to _____ _____.

Letter C. Christian Submission Requires _____ (v. 17)

Lesson #3. We must: _____ God above _____,
_____ His people, and
_____ everyone.

Community Group Questions

NOTE: Some questions are meant to produce quick, observable answers from the text in order to set up/inform discussion in future questions.

#1. During election seasons, what makes it especially difficult to show respect toward governing authorities with whom we disagree?

#2. How should our transformed life in Jesus Christ impact the way we treat such people?

#3. Read 1 Peter 2:13. Why does Peter command Christians to submit to governing authorities?

#4. Read 1 Peter 2:14. What two purposes has God established government to fulfill?

#5. Read Acts 5:29. How does that clarify the limits of our submission?

#6. How should those truths in questions 3-5 influence the way we:
View government authorities, and
Respond when we disagree with their decisions?

#7. Why is it important that Christians use God's Word to develop their political convictions, rather than the opposite?

#8. Read Matthew 5:16. According to God the Son, what should our good works accomplish before unbelievers?

#9. Read 1 Peter 2:16. What does Peter mean when he says Christians are both FREE in Christ and BONDSLAVES of God?

#10. What opportunities do we have here in our community to serve, volunteer, and do what is right?

#11. Read 1 Peter 2:15. How will our conduct in community settings either strengthen or undermine the credibility of our witness?

Community Group Questions

NOTE: Some questions are meant to produce quick, observable answers from the text in order to set up/inform discussion in future questions.

#1. During election seasons, what makes it especially difficult to show respect toward governing authorities with whom we disagree?

#2. How should our transformed life in Jesus Christ impact the way we treat such people?

#3. Read 1 Peter 2:13. Why does Peter command Christians to submit to governing authorities?

#4. Read 1 Peter 2:14. What two purposes has God established government to fulfill?

#5. Read Acts 5:29. How does that clarify the limits of our submission?

#6. How should those truths in questions 3-5 influence the way we:
View government authorities, and
Respond when we disagree with their decisions?

#7. Why is it important that Christians use God's Word to develop their political convictions, rather than the opposite?

#8. Read Matthew 5:16. According to God the Son, what should our good works accomplish before unbelievers?

#9. Read 1 Peter 2:16. What does Peter mean when he says Christians are both FREE in Christ and BONDSLAVES of God?

#10. What opportunities do we have here in our community to serve, volunteer, and do what is right?

#11. Read 1 Peter 2:15. How will our conduct in community settings either strengthen or undermine the credibility of our witness?